

Subsidies for academic meetings

I. Conditions for granting a subsidy

- 1.1 The Institute of Missiology of missio e.V. grants subsidies for the organisation of scientific meetings , if they take place in a country in Asia, Africa, Oceania or Latin America.
- 1.2 The MWI also supports scholars from these continents who want to attend a meeting in Europe or North America.
- 1.3 The topic of the meeting, conference or general assembly has to be of importance for the theological or philosophical reflection and of contextual relevance.
- 1.4 Priority is given to female applicants, to scientific meetings with a high amount of active female participants, or to subjects that promote or deal with the empowerment of women or the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults

II. Amount granted as subsidy

- 2.1. The subsidy partially or entirely meets the costs of the organisation of the conference or the travelling expenses of the participants (in the case of academic meetings in Europa and North America).
- 2.2. The running costs of the institution responsible for the conference cannot be taken into consideration (secretary, salaries etc.).
- 2.3. A printing subsidy for the records of the meeting must be applied for separately.

III. Application procedure

- 3.1 The applicant should be a representative of the institution in charge of the realisation of the meeting.
- 3.2 The application has to be submitted via the Offline Client and to contain the following documents/information:

- a detailed programme with list of the lectures and lecturers
- a list of participants
- the place and exact date
- a tentative budget indicating all co-financing organisations
- Safeguarding Policy of the organizing institution (if existent).

IV. Commitment of the organiser

- 4.1 Within three months after the conference, the organiser sends a narrative and a financial report to the MWI.
- 4.2 A complimentary copy of the records is sent to the MWI as soon as available.
